

Maureen Walker, PhD, Licensed Psychologist

Additional Publications

- Co-editor, How Connections Heal, Guilford Press, 2004
- Co-editor, The Complexity of Connection, Guilford Press, 2004
- Contributing Author, Diversity and Development: Critical Contexts that Our Lives and Relationships, Brooks-Cole, 2004
- Contributing Author, Diversity in College Settings, Routledge Press, 1999.
- Contributing Author, The Complete Guide to Mental Health for Women, Beacon Press, 2003
- Contributor, Managing Across Difference, M. Gentile, (CD-ROM management training product by Harvard Business School Publishing, 1996)
- Racial Identification and Feminism: A Synthesis of Perspectives for a Focused Group Intervention, Cross-Cultural Counseling and Psychotherapy Roundtable Teacher's College (Published Proceedings of 1991 Symposium)
- Author/ contributing author of numerous Stone Center Works in Progress including:
 - Race, Self, and Society: Relational Challenges in a Culture of Disconnection
 - Therapist's Authenticity
 - Shame and Humiliation: From isolation to relational transformation
 - Racial Images and Relational Possibilities
 - How Therapy Helps When the Culture Hurts
 - Power and Effectiveness: Envisioning an Alternative Paradigm

MAUREEN WALKER
PHD